The membership fee of currently 40 Euro per year is due on January 10th of each year and will be collected by direct debit using the SEPA procedure. The Heisenberg Society asks for consent to the direct debit being the easiest procedure. Junior members aged 18-27 years pay half of the annual fee. - The email address is important as all messages are sent by the computer network. Members who absolutely need mail delivery please notify the board. - Please send the completed membership declaration by mail (hard copy) to the address of the society as stated in the top line.
